(2) If, following such an examination, the second-mentioned consultant psychiatrist—

(4) Where a health board makes an application under subsection (1) without any prior examination of the child the subject of the application by a consultant psychiatrist, the court may, if it is satisfied that there is reasonable cause to believe that the child the subject of the application is suffering from a mental disorder, direct that the health board arrange for the examination of the child by a consultant psychiatrist who is not a relative of the child and that a report of the results of the examination be furnished to the court within such time as may be specified by the court.

(5) Where the court gives a direction under subsection (4), the consultant psychiatrist who carries out an examination of the child the subject of the application shall report to the court on the results of the examination and shall indicate to the court whether he or she is satisfied that the child is suffering from a mental disorder.

(7) An application under this section may, if the court is satisfied that the urgency of the matter so requires, be made ex parte.

(8) Between the making of an application for an order under this section and its determination, the court, of its own motion or on the application of any person, may give such directions as it sees fit as to the care and custody of the child who is the subject of the application pending such determination, and any such direction shall cease to have effect on the determination of the application.

(9) Where, while an order under subsection (6) is in force, an application is made to the court by the health board concerned for an extension of the period of detention of the child the subject of the application, the court may order that the child be detained for a further period not exceeding 3 months.

Pr.2 S.25

(10) On or before the expiration of the period of detention referred to in subsection (9), a further order of detention for a period not exceeding 6 months may be made by the court on the application of the health board and thereafter for periods not exceeding 6 months.
