PRIVACY POLICY FOR MHT PANEL MEMBERS

1. What does this Privacy Policy cover?

This Privacy Policy explains how the Mental Health Commission (“we”, “us” or the “MHC”) uses Personal Data which we collect about MHT Panel Members.

Personal Data is information about living individuals.

We use the words Personal Data to describe information that is about you or another individual, and from which you or they are identifiable. Our aim is responsible handling of Personal Data and this Privacy Policy describes how we use Personal Data that we collect in the course of hiring Panel Members. This includes Personal Data obtained from a variety of sources including:

- 1.1. Panel Member applications online or on paper;
- 1.2. Panel Member files which will include details of education, employment history and professional qualifications;
- 1.3. Garda vetting database;
- 1.4. Protected disclosure under the Protected Disclosures Act 2014 or pursuant to the MHC Protected Disclosures Policy;
- 1.5. Current and/or previous employers and/or government department or agencies.

Personal Data may be provided to us by you directly or by a third party.

2. MHT Panel Members as data subjects

All MHT Panel Members are independent contractors of the MHC as follows:

- (a) Solicitors – legal representatives;
- (b) Solicitors / Barristers – Chairs of Tribunals;
- (c) Consultant Psychiatrists – who sit on Tribunals;
- (d) Members of the Public with an interest in mental health, known as ‘Lay Members’ – who sit on the tribunals; and
- (e) Independent Consultant Psychiatrists who provide reports pursuant to Section 17 of the Mental Health Act 2001.

3. How we use Personal Data

We use Personal Data to carry out our statutory functions and administer the operation of the MHC on a day to day basis.

Under section 33(1) of the Mental Health Act, 2001 (the “Act”) the principal functions of the MHC are to promote, encourage and foster the establishment and maintenance of high standards in the delivery of mental health services and to take all reasonable steps to protect the interests of persons detained in approved centres under the Act.

Under section 48 of the Act, the MHC can establish Mental Health Tribunals (known as Tribunals) and such Tribunals shall determine matters referred to it pursuant to section 17 of the Act.

We may use the Personal Data to:

- 3.1 Assess your application for appointment to a panel and, if successful, to enter into a contract with you;
- 3.2 As part of the vetting process;
- 3.3 Process payment of professional fees and where applicable expenses;
- 3.4 Provide training or instruction;
- 3.5 Communication in relation to the establishment of a Tribunal;
- 3.6 Review details of any incident or complaint made by a third party;
- 3.7 All other relevant matters arising out of your application and appointment to a panel and the carrying out of services to your contract for services.

4. Personal Data

Personal Data we may hold and process includes:

Type of Personal Data	Examples
Contact information	Name, address, email and telephone number(s)
General information	Gender, date and place of birth (from passport) Vehicle registration number and insurance (for the purpose of processing expense claims).
Proof of identity, proof of address	Proof of identity and proof of address are required for the Garda vetting process for MHT Panel Members. This may include a copy of a passport and utility bill.
Education and employment information	Educational background (and where required supporting documentation), employer details and employment history, skills and experience and references. Professional memberships and affiliations and any other relevant information (e.g. employment status).
Government and other official identification numbers (to include professional registration numbers)	PPS number, passport number, tax identification number, driver's licence number, professional registration numbers or other government issued identification number. Any other relevant documentation (e.g. work permit).
Financial information and account details	Bank account number, or other financial account number and account details, other financial information for processing wages

Information held for members of Legal Representatives Panel	Application forms, name, firm address, office number, work mobile number, practicing certificate, professional indemnity cover, tax clearance and tax access numbers, and any other relevant correspondence.
Information held for members of other Panels	This may include data from and with Application form for Panel, contract numbers, details of firm/hospital s/he is working at, Medical Council requirements (e.g. for members of the Medical Profession as applicable), , tax clearance and tax access numbers, vetting requirements.
Criminal data	Details of any past criminal offences or proceedings in respect of offences may be included in a Garda vetting report for a MHT Panel Member. Vetting is conducted before successful applicants are admitted to the panel. In the event any criminal offences are disclosed, these are considered by the MHC as to whether they are of a nature so as to disqualify the candidate from admission to the Tribunal panel.

5. Responsibility for Personal Data

The MHC is responsible for looking after your Personal Data in accordance with this Privacy Policy, our internal standards and procedures and the requirements of data protection law.

The MHC shall apply suitable and specific safeguards which are designed to ensure that the requirements of data protection legislation are applied to our processing operations.

6. Sharing of Personal Data

In connection with the purposes described above, we may need to share your Personal Data with third parties (this may involve third parties disclosing Personal Data to us and us disclosing Personal Data to them). Such information shall only be disclosed where necessary and not otherwise. These third parties may include the following

Type of third party	Examples
Our service Providers	External third party service providers, such as security professionals, accountants, auditors, experts, lawyers and other professional advisors; travel assistance providers; IT systems, support and hosting service providers; banks and financial institutions that service our accounts; pay roll providers; document and records management providers; and other third party vendors and outsourced service providers that assist us in carrying out our activities.
Government authorities and third parties involved in court action	We may also share Personal Data with: (a) government or other public authorities (including, but not limited to, courts, regulatory bodies, law enforcement agencies, tax authorities and criminal investigations agencies); and (b) third party participants in legal proceedings and their accountants, auditors, lawyers, and other advisors and representatives, as we believe to be necessary or appropriate. The Office of the Comptroller and Auditor General may access files of the MHC relating to its agents.

7. Security of Personal Data

The MHC uses appropriate technical, legal and organisational measures which comply with data protection laws to keep Personal Data secure.

As most of the Personal Data we hold is stored electronically, we have appropriate IT security measures to ensure this Personal Data is kept secure (e.g. we may use anti-virus protection systems, firewalls, and data encryption technologies). We have procedures in place at our premises to keep secure both soft and hard copy records. Access to such documents is restricted to relevant personnel. We also train our staff regularly on data protection and information security.

When the MHC provides Personal Data to a third party (including our service providers) or engages a third party to collect Personal Data on our behalf, the third party will be required to use appropriate security measures to protect the confidentiality and security of Personal Data and will assume certain responsibilities under data protection law for looking after the Personal Data that they receive from us.

Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet or electronic data storage system can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. If you have reason to believe that your interaction with us is no longer secure (e.g. if you feel that the security of any Personal Data you might have sent to us has been compromised), please immediately notify us.

8. Legal justification for our use of Personal Data

To comply with the law, we need to tell you the legal justification we rely on for using your Personal Data for our purposes.

First, the MHC has a statutory function under section 33 of the Act “to promote, encourage and foster the establishment and maintenance of high standards and good practices in the delivery of mental health services and to take all reasonable steps to protect the interests of persons detained in approved centres.” While the law provides several legal justifications, the below describes the main legal justifications that apply to our purposes for using Personal Data:

- (a) Consent (where appropriate);
- (b) Performance of a contract to which you are subject;
- (c) Compliance with legal obligations; and
- (d) Performance of our tasks carried out in the exercise of official authority and performance of our statutory functions.

9. Special Categories of Personal Data

These more sensitive or “special” categories of Personal Data include Personal Data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning an individual’s sex life or sexual orientation.

We only process data concerning health where required (e.g. to assess your fitness to serve as a MHT Panel Member and to ensure your safety during the provision of such services). Such data may also be processed in the context of legal proceedings or claims.

We will rely on any one or more of the following categories in processing your sensitive Personal Data:

- (a) your explicit consent;
- (b) to protect your vital interests in circumstances where you are physically or legally incapable of giving consent; and
- (c) where necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, or whenever courts are acting in their judicial capacity.

10. Criminal Data

Processing for Personal Data relating to criminal convictions and offences in respect of MHT Panel Members is only collected where you undergo Garda vetting and such data is disclosed as result. This is permitted in accordance with the National Vetting Bureau (Children and Vulnerable Persons) Act 2012 as may be amended from time to time.

11. Monitoring communications

We reserve the right to monitor electronic communications (e.g. emails) to protect you, our organisation and IT infrastructure, and relevant third parties including by:

- (a) identifying and dealing with inappropriate communications; and
- (b) looking for and removing any viruses, or other malware, and resolving any other information security issues.

12. Retention of Personal Data

We will keep Personal Data for as long as is necessary for the purposes for which we collect it. The retention period for each type of data is documented in the MHC Data Retention policy.

Where we hold Personal Data to comply with a legal or regulatory obligation, we will keep the information for at least as long as is required to comply with that obligation.

For further information about the period of time for which we retain your Personal Data, please contact us using the details below.

If you wish to exercise your rights, please contact us using the details below.

14. Your obligations in relation to Personal Data

You should keep your Personal Data up-to-date by informing us of any significant changes to your Personal Data.

15. Your obligations in relation to other persons Personal Data

When processing Personal Data in the course of performing your duties as a MHT Panel Member (such as the Personal Data of mental health patients), it is your duty to abide by all applicable laws and/or MHC policies, standards and procedures, as may be amended from time-to-time, relating to the processing of Personal Data. In particular, you must not access or use Personal Data for any purpose other than in connection with, and to the extent necessary for, your work with us. Any breaches of security of Personal Data in your possession or of which you become aware must be notified without undue delay in accordance with our Personal Data Security Breach Procedure for MHT Panel Members.

Your obligation to keep the Personal Data of others confidential continues after the termination of your relationship with the MHC.

Any proven breach of data protection laws and/or internal policies, standards and/or procedures may result in the termination of your appointment to the relevant MHC panel.

16. Who to contact about your Personal Data

If you have any questions or concerns about the way your Personal Data is used by us, you can contact the Data Protection Officer (DPO) by email at dpfoi@mhcirl.ie
