Introduction

Purpose

The Judgement Support Framework special edition (the JSF special edition) was developed in light of the COVID-19 pandemic and associated public health measures. It provides for a streamlined inspection process for inspections.

It facilitates the Inspector of Mental Health Services (“the Inspector”) and Assistant Inspectors inspecting approved centres during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Structure of the Handbook

The JSF special edition presents an efficient inspection framework for assessing compliance with the regulatory requirements and Part 4 of the Mental Health Act (2001).

Key Supporting Documentation

The JSF special edition is to be read and implemented in line with the Mental Health Act 2001, Regulations, Rules and Codes of Practice.

Section 1

Inspection of Regulations, Part 4, Rules and Codes of Practice

The JSF special edition outlines items to be inspected to assess compliance for each Regulation and Part 4 of the Mental Health Act 2001.

Quality assessments as per the Judgement Support Framework will not be made.

The Rules and Codes of Practice are inspected in full as per the relevant code or rule.

Assessing compliance

Compliance is assessed against the strict wording of the legislative requirements. Compliance/non-compliance is determined as detailed below:

Compliant
The approved centre complies with all aspects of the regulation.
Non-compliant
The approved centre does not comply with all aspects of the regulation.

Failure to meet requirements due to COVID-19

A service will not be deemed non-compliant with a regulatory requirement, where there is evidence that the failure to meet the requirement was directly related to the service following public health guidance and/or the management of a COVID-19 outbreak.

Risk level of non-compliance

When an approved centre has been found to be non-compliant with a Regulation, Rule, Code or Part 4, the risk of the non-compliance is assessed by the Inspector. The risk level is calculated by assessing the impact of the non-compliance against the likelihood of the non-compliance reoccurring. The risk ratings are low, medium, high, and critical.

Sections 59 and 60

Under the Emergency Measures in the Public Interest (COVID-19) Act 2020, Sections 59 (administration of ECT) and 60 (administration of medicine) of the Mental Health Act 2001 are unchanged.

Examinations under Sections 59 and 60 by the responsible consultant psychiatrist and second opinion consultant psychiatrist should be completed on a face-to-face basis.

In light of the pandemic it is noted that the second opinion consultant psychiatrist may be from the same approved centre, but not responsible for the care and treatment of that patient.

Mental Health Tribunals

Since March 2020, Mental Health Tribunals have been conducted remotely and in person. To fulfil the requirements of the associated regulation, the approved centre should provide resources and facilities to support patients accessing their Mental Health Tribunals.

- b) the continued administration of that medicine is authorised (in a form specified by the Commission) by another consultant psychiatrist, following referral of the matter to him or her by the first-mentioned psychiatrist [...]

Purpose:

The Inspector must assess an approved centre’s compliance with Part 4 of the Mental Health Act 2001, as amended, (the 2001 Act) as part of each annual regulatory inspection.

There are specific requirements in Part 4 of the 2001 Act in relation to medication administered to involuntary patients for a continuous period of 3 months. For these patients there are two questions that must be assessed in order to continue to administer medication:

- Does the patient have the ability to understand the nature, purpose, and likely effects of the proposed treatment?
- Is the patient willing to consent?

All documentation set out below must be made available to the Mental Health Commission on request, or to the Inspector on inspection.

These requirements relate to medications administered for the purposes of ameliorating the patient’s mental disorder and do not relate to medication administered for general health purposes.

Items for inspection:

Ability to consent (assessment of capacity)

Following the administration of medication for a continuous period of 3 months, the patient’s responsible consultant psychiatrist must assess their patient’s ability to consent to the treatment; this includes an assessment of the patient’s ability to understand the nature, purpose and likely effects of the proposed treatment.

EVIDENCE:

There must be documented evidence that the responsible consultant psychiatrist has undertaken this assessment. This may be evidenced by a capacity assessment, or equivalent.

Unable to consent

Where a patient is assessed as being unable to consent to the continued administration of medication, the treatment may be approved and authorised by two consultant psychiatrists pursuant to the procedure set out in Form 17: Administration of Medicine for more than 3 Months Involuntary Patient (Adult) – Unable to Consent.

EVIDENCE:

The Form 17 must contain the following:

- The name of the medication(s) prescribed;
- Confirmation of the assessment of the patient's ability to understand the nature, purpose and likely effects of the medication(s);
- Details of the discussion with the patient, including:
  - the nature and purpose of the medication(s);
  - the effects of the medications(s) including any risks and benefits; and
  - any views expressed by the patient;
- Any supports provided to the patient in relation to the discussion and their decision-making.
- Approval by a consultant psychiatrist.
- Authorisation by a second consultant psychiatrist.

Written consent

Where a patient is assessed as being able to understand the nature, purpose and likely effects and is willing to consent to continue taking the medication, this must be recorded in a written consent form.

EVIDENCE:

The consent form must contain the following:

- The name of the medication(s) prescribed;
- Confirmation of the assessment of the patient's ability to understand the nature, purpose, and likely effects of the medication(s);
- Details of the discussion with the patient, including:
  - the nature and purpose of the medication(s)
  - the effects of the medications(s) including

- any risks and benefits; and
- any views expressed by the patient;
- Any supports provided to the patient in relation to the discussion and their decision-making.

Unwilling to consent

Where a patient is assessed as being able to understand the nature, purpose and likely effects, but is unwilling to consent to the continued administration of the medication(s), the treatment must be discontinued immediately, even if the responsible consultant psychiatrist considers that the treatment is in the best interests of the patient.

This must be recorded on the clinical file.

Children admitted under Section 25 of the 2001 Act

A child admitted under Section 25 of the 2001 Act may be administered medication with or without consent for the purposes of ameliorating his or her mental disorder for a period of three months.

On the expiration of the three month period the administration of medication may only be continued if it is approved and authorised by two consultant psychiatrists pursuant to the procedure set out in Form 18: Treatment without Consent – Administration of Medicine for more than 3 Months (Child).
